Hi,

Thank you for your speedy reply. I am also attempting to gather the documents from Mr. (b)(6);(b)(7)(C) mother to demonstrate her father's (i.e., (b)(6);(b)(7)(C) maternal grandfather) presence in the US prior to her birth. I will of course do my best to provide those to you and the Court as soon as possible.

I apologize for what appears to be my "beating of a dead horse," if you will... but do you have a position on whether you are able to scan/email me the NTA and evidence packet in the meantime? I reiterate my apology for this nagging request. If denied, I will simply stop asking. If granted, I will be very grateful!

Sincerely,

(b)(6);(b)(7)(C)

ps. If you identify any other documents you think you need in order to expedite the citizenship inquiry, please feel free to let me know. I am doing my very best to hunt everything down expeditiously.

Good Morning Mr. (b)(6);(b)(7) and Ms. (b)(6);(b)(7)

To clarify, Mr. (b)(6);(b)(7)(C) was born in 1989. As for his mother's first entry into the United States, it appears as if it was in 1993. However, that does not close the possibility of acquisition of citizenship if her previous attempts at entering the United States in order to meet the physical presence requirement were denied due to a US government official's erroneous interpretation of the law. See Matter of Navarrete, 12 I&N Dec. 138 (BIA 1967); see also Matter of Farley, 11 I&N Dec. 51 (BIA 1965); Matter of Yanez-Carrillo, 10 I&N Dec. 366 (BIA 1963). In other words, Mr. (b)(6);(b)(7) mother may well have been "constructively present" in the United States for the 5 requisite years prior to Mr. (b)(6);(b)(7) birth, thereby satisfying the requirements for Mr.

(b)(6);(b)(7)(C) to be a USC at birth. My discussions with her indicate that she did indeed attempt to enter the US during her youth but was denied erroneously.

I recognize that it is my burden to demonstrate the above. I am doing my best to gather the necessary documents; I hope you can appreciate that it is difficult to do so.

In the meantime, I respectfully renew my request for the NTA and evidence submission. I fear waiting to get a time/date from Varick to review the ROP will cause unnecessarily delay.

Thank you in advance.
Sincerely,

(b)(6);(b)(7)(C)

I was able to learn from Mr. (b)(6);(b)(7)(C) mother that her first admission to the United States was in 1993. I hope that is helpful for your review of his potential acquisition of citizenship claim.

Additionally, are you able to provide (scan/email is fine) a copy of the NTA and DHS' evidence packet? I filed a ROP request today but those usually take several days (sometimes weeks) to make happen. It would be extremely helpful in my preparation for 1/31 to have the requested documents a little earlier.

Thanks for considering. I hope you had a nice weekend.

No worries, I appreciate you responding so promptly. I have reviewed this case with several senior attorneys here in the office and have determined that a claim to acquired citizenship is dependent upon the statutory residency requirement for both (b)(6);(b)(7)(C) mother and maternal grandfather. We located his mother/s administrative number, (b)(6);(b)(7)(C). She became a naturalized US citizen independently on Nov. 9, 2012 through her marriage to a U.S. citizen.

His maternal grandfather's a# is (b)(6);(b)(7)(C) and he acquired U.S. citizenship through a U.S. citizen parent. Therefore, in order for him to acquire citizenship, he must establish the following:

1. Maternal grandfather's residency in the U.S. for 10 years prior to his mother's birth on (b)(6);(b)(7)(C) 5 father the age of 14;
2. If his mother was born out of wedlock, he must also establish that her father legitimated her prior to the age of 21;
3. If his mother indeed acquired citizenship, she must then establish that his mother was residing in the U.S. for 5 years prior to his birth on (b)(6);(b)(7)(C) 2 after the age of 14.

Also, did his parents eventually divorce because his mother married a U.S. citizen. If so, did his step-father legally adopt him?

I'm including Senior attorney (b)(6);(b)(7)(C) for all future correspondence as today will be my last day in the NYC office.

Thank you and it was a pleasure meeting you during my time in the office

Good Afternoon,

Thanks for your email. I was in detention all morning with clients and am away from the office all afternoon at an event. I will unfortunately not be able to access your requested information until tomorrow morning.

However, I want to note that we are not only investigating whether (b)(6);(b) derived citizenship, but whether he acquired it at birth. That is, whether his mother was a USC at birth because her father was a USC at birth (note that the docs provided related to (b)(6);(b) grandfather show that he was a USC at birth, not that he naturalized) and therefore whether (b)(6);(b) is a USC from birth.

I will provide whatever else I have first thing in the morning.

Thanks again for your time and assistance. Stay warm!!

Thank you again for your prompt assistance with the citizenship review for (b)(6);(b)(7)(C). Unfortunately, I need a bit more information to complete the review.

Is it possible to obtain the following additional information from (b)(6);(b)(7)(C) mother?

1. A-number or naturalization date for (b)(6);(b)(7)(C)
2. Was (b)(6) ever a LPR? If so, what date did she become a LPR;
3. Were his parents married at the time of (b)(6);(b)(7)(C) birth or at any time;
4. If they were married, did they divorce? If so, who had legal custody of (b)(6);(b)(7)(C)
5. What is the immigration status of (b)(6);(b)(7)(C) father;
6. Approximate dates of (b)(6);(b)(7)(C) residency in the U.S.;
7. Did (b)(6) ever petition for (b)(6) to become a LPR any time;
8. Were (b)(6);(b)(7)(C) parents married at the time of her birth? If not, who had legal custody;
9. What is (b)(6);(b)(7)(C) mother's immigration status in the U.S.

It is unlikely (b)(6) acquired citizenship from her father because she was born on Dec. 7, 1965, prior to her father's naturalization on March 24, 1971. However, she may have derived citizenship. (b)(6);(claim to citizenship is dependent upon the following factors: 1) the date of his mother's naturalization; 2) whether his parents were married at the time of his birth; and 3) whether he ever became a LPR. Any derivation claim requires that (b)(6);(become a LPR prior to reaching the age of 18, so it's highly unlikely he derived citizenship, but want to ensure we conduct a proper analysis.

Thanks again and I apologize for the lengthy inquiries.

I look forward to hearing from you at your earliest convenience

Good Evening ACC (b)(6);(b)(7)(C)

It was a pleasure meeting you today. I hope the rest of your day has gone smoothly.

Attached are the documents you requested related to the issue of whether Mr. (b)(6);(b)(7)(C) potentially acquired US citizenship at birth. The attachment includes the following in the following order:

- Copy of Mr. (b)(6);(b)(7)(C) birth certificate
- Translation of Mr. (b)(6);(b)(7)(C) birth certificate
- Copy of photo-page of Mr. (b)(6);(b)(7)(C) mother's (b)(6);(b)(7)(C) passport
- Copy of (b)(6);(b)(7)(C) birth certificate
- Translation of (b)(6);(b)(7)(C) birth certificate
- Certificate of Citizenship for (b)(6);(b)(7)(C) (b)(6);(b)(7)(C) grandfather
- Copy of Front and Back of (b)(6);(b)(7)(C) US citizen ID card

I apologize that I do not have (b)(6);(b)(7)(C) certificate of naturalization; I thought I had it but apparently I do not.

I am investigating into whether Mr. (b)(6);(b)(7)(C) acquired citizenship at birth due to his grandfather's US citizenship and therefore his mother's US citizenship. Please let me know if DHS is able to determine Mr. (b)(6);(b)(7)(C) potential US citizenship, as well.

Finally, I appreciate in advance you emailing me the NTA and evidence packet, whenever you get a chance.

Hi,

Thank you for your speedy reply. I am also attempting to gather the documents from Mr. (b)(6);(b)(7)(C) mother to demonstrate her father's (i.e., (b)(6);(b)(7)(C) maternal grandfather) presence in the US prior to her birth. I will of course do my best to provide those to you and the Court as soon as possible.

I apologize for what appears to be my "beating of a dead horse," if you will... but do you have a position on whether you are able to scan/email me the NTA and evidence packet in the meantime? I reiterate my apology for this nagging request. If denied, I will simply stop asking. If granted, I will be very grateful!

Sincerely,

(b)(6);(b)(7)(C)

ps. If you identify any other documents you think you need in order to expedite the citizenship inquiry, please feel free to let me know. I am doing my very best to hunt everything down expeditiously.

Good Morning Mr. (b)(6);(b)(7)(C)

To clarify, Mr. (b)(6);(b) was born in 1989. As for his mother's first entry into the United States, it appears as if it was in 1993. However, that does not close the possibility of acquisition of citizenship if her previous attempts at entering the United States in order to meet the physical presence requirement were denied due to a US government official's erroneous interpretation of the law. See Matter of Navarrete, 12 I&N Dec. 138 (BIA 1967); see also Matter of Farley, 11 I&N Dec. 51 (BIA 1965); Matter of Yanez-Carrillo, 10 I&N Dec. 366 (BIA 1963). In other words, Mr. (b)(6);(b) mother may well have been "constructively present" in the United States for the 5 requisite years prior to Mr. (b)(6);(b) birth, thereby satisfying the requirements for Mr. (b)(6);(b) to be a USC at birth. My discussions with her indicate that she did indeed attempt to enter the US during her youth but was denied erroneously.

I recognize that it is my burden to demonstrate the above. I am doing my best to gather the necessary documents; I hope you can appreciate that it is difficult to do so.

In the meantime, I respectfully renew my request for the NTA and evidence submission. I fear waiting to get a time/date from Varick to review the ROP will cause unnecessarily delay.

Thank you in advance.
Sincerely,

I was able to learn from Mr. (b)(6);(b)(7)(C) mother that her first admission to the United States was in 1993. I hope that is helpful for your review of his potential acquisition of citizenship claim.

Additionally, are you able to provide (scan/email is fine) a copy of the NTA and DHS' evidence packet? I filed a ROP request today but those usually take several days (sometimes weeks) to make happen. It would be extremely helpful in my preparation for 1/31 to have the requested documents a little earlier.

Thanks for considering. I hope you had a nice weekend.

No worries, I appreciate you responding so promptly. I have reviewed this case with several senior attorneys here in the office and have determined that a claim to acquired citizenship is dependent upon the statutory residency requirement for both (b)(6);(b)(7)(C) mother and maternal grandfather. We located his mother/s administrative number, (b)(6);(b)(7)(C) She became a naturalized US citizen independently on Nov. 9, 2012 through her marriage to a U.S. citizen.

His maternal grandfather's a# is (b)(6);(b)(7)(C) and he acquired U.S. citizenship through a U.S. citizen parent. Therefore, in order for him to acquire citizenship, he must establish the following:

1. Maternal grandfather's residency in the U.S. for 10 years prior to his mother's birth on (b)(6);(b)(7)(C) 5 father the age of 14;
2. If his mother was born out of wedlock, he must also establish that her father legitimated her prior to the age of 21;
3. If his mother indeed acquired citizenship, she must then establish that his mother was residing in the U.S. for 5 years prior to his birth on (b)(6);(b)(7)(C) 2 after the age of 14.

Also, did his parents eventually divorce because his mother married a U.S. citizen. If so, did his step-father legally adopt him?

I'm including Senior attorney (b)(6);(b)(7) for all future correspondence as today will be my last day in the NYC office.

Thank you and it was a pleasure meeting you during my time in the office

Good Afternoon,

Thanks for your email. I was in detention all morning with clients and am away from the office all afternoon at an event. I will unfortunately not be able to access your requested information until tomorrow morning.

However, I want to note that we are not only investigating whether (b)(6);(b)(7)(C) derived citizenship, but whether he acquired it at birth. That is, whether his mother was a USC at birth because her father was a USC at birth (note that the docs provided related to (b)(6);(b)(7)(C) grandfather show that he was a USC at birth, not that he naturalized) and therefore whether (b)(6);(b)(7)(C) is a USC from birth.

I will provide whatever else I have first thing in the morning.

Thanks again for your time and assistance. Stay warm!!

Thank you again for your prompt assistance with the citizenship review for (b)(6);(b)(7)(C) (b)(6);(b)(7)(C) Unfortunately, I need a bit more information to complete the review.

Is it possible to obtain the following additional information from (b)(6);(b)(7)(C) mother?

1. A-number or naturalization date for (b)(6);(b)(7)(C)
2. Was (b)(6);(b)(7)(C) ever a LPR? If so, what date did she become a LPR;
3. Were his parents married at the time of (b)(6);(b)(7)(C) birth or at any time;
4. If they were married, did they divorce? If so, who had legal custody of (b)(6);(b)(7)(C)
5. What is the immigration status of (b)(6);(b)(7)(C) father;
6. Approximate dates of (b)(6);(b)(7)(C) residency in the U.S.;
7. Did (b)(6);(b)(7)(C) ever petition for (b)(6);(b)(7)(C) to become a LPR any time;
8. Were (b)(6);(b)(7)(C) parents married at the time of her birth? If not, who had legal custody;
9. What is (b)(6);(b)(7)(C) mother's immigration status in the U.S.

It is unlikely (b)(6) acquired citizenship from her father because she was born on Dec. 7, 1965, prior to her father's naturalization on March 24, 1971. However, she may have derived citizenship. (b)(6);(f) claim to citizenship is dependent upon the following factors: 1) the date of his mother's naturalization; 2) whether his parents were married at the time of his birth; and 3) whether he ever became a LPR. Any derivation claim requires that (b)(6);(f) become a LPR prior to reaching the age of 18, so it's highly unlikely he derived citizenship, but want to ensure we conduct a proper analysis.

Thanks again and I apologize for the lengthy inquiries.

I look forward to hearing from you at your earliest convenience

Good Evening ACC Contreras,

It was a pleasure meeting you today. I hope the rest of your day has gone smoothly.

Attached are the documents you requested related to the issue of whether Mr. (b)(6);(b) potentially acquired US citizenship at birth. The attachment includes the following in the following order:

- Copy of Mr. (b)(6);(b)(7)(C) birth certificate
- Translation of Mr. (b)(6);(b)(7)(C) birth certificate
- Copy of photo-page of Mr. (b)(6);(b)(7)(C) mother's (b)(6);(b)(7)(C) passport
- Copy of (b)(6);(b)(7)(C) birth certificate
- Translation of (b)(6);(b)(7)(C) birth certificate
- Certificate of Citizenship for (b)(6);(b)(7)(C) father / (b)(6);(b)(7)(C) grandfather
- Copy of Front and Back of (b)(6);(b)(7)(C) US citizen ID card

I apologize that I do not have (b)(6);(b)(7)(C) certificate of naturalization; I thought I had it but apparently I do not.

I am investigating into whether Mr. (b)(6);(b) acquired citizenship at birth due to his grandfather's US citizenship and therefore his mother's US citizenship. Please let me know if DHS is able to determine Mr. (b)(6);(b)(7)(C) potential US citizenship, as well.

Finally, I appreciate in advance you emailing me the NTA and evidence packet, whenever you get a chance.

Hi,

Thank you for your speedy reply. I am also attempting to gather the documents from Mr. (b)(6):(b)(7)(C) mother to demonstrate her father's (i.e., (b)(6):(b)(7)(C) maternal grandfather) presence in the US prior to her birth. I will of course do my best to provide those to you and the Court as soon as possible.

I apologize for what appears to be my "beating of a dead horse," if you will... but do you have a position on whether you are able to scan/email me the NTA and evidence packet in the meantime? I reiterate my apology for this nagging request. If denied, I will simply stop asking. If granted, I will be very grateful!

Sincerely,

(b)(6);(b)(7)(C)

ps. If you identify any other documents you think you need in order to expedite the citizenship inquiry, please feel free to let me know. I am doing my very best to hunt everything down expeditiously.

I was able to learn from (b)(6);(b)(7)(C) mother that her first admission to the United States was in 1993. I hope that is helpful for your review of his potential acquisition of citizenship claim.

Additionally, are you able to provide (scan/email is fine) a copy of the NTA and DHS' evidence packet? No worries, I appreciate you responding so promptly. I have reviewed this case with several senior attorneys here in the office and have determined that a claim to acquired citizenship is dependent upon the statutory residency requirement for both (b)(6);(b)(7)(C) mother and maternal grandfather. We located his mother/s administrative number, (b)(6);(b)(7)(C). She became a naturalized US citizen independently on Nov. 9, 2012 through her marriage to a U.S. citizen.

His maternal grandfather's a# is (b)(6);(b)(7)(C) and he acquired U.S. citizenship though a U.S. citizen parent. Therefore, in order for him to acquire citizenship, he must establish the following:

1. Maternal grandfather's residency in the U.S. for 10 years prior to his mother's birth on (b)(6);(b)(7)(C) 5 father the age of 14;
2. If his mother was born out of wedlock, he must also establish that her father legitimated her prior to the age of 21;
3. If his mother indeed acquired citizenship, she must then establish that his mother was residing in the U.S. for 5 years prior to his birth on (b)(6);(b)(7)(C) 2 after the age of 14.

Also, did his parents eventually divorce because his mother married a U.S. citizen. If so, did his step-father legally adopt him?

I'm including Senior attorney (b)(6);(b)(7)(C) for all future correspondence as today will be my last day in the NYC office.

Thank you and it was a pleasure meeting you during my time in the office

Good Afternoon,

Thanks for your email. I was in detention all morning with clients and am away from the office all afternoon at an event. I will unfortunately not be able to access your requested information until tomorrow morning.

However, I want to note that we are not only investigating whether (b)(6);(b)(7)(C) derived citizenship, but whether he acquired it at birth. That is, whether his mother was a USC at birth because her father was a USC at birth (note that the docs provided related to (b)(6);(b)(7)(C) grandfather show that he was a USC at birth, not that he naturalized) and therefore whether (b)(6);(b)(7)(C) is a USC from birth.

I will provide whatever else I have first thing in the morning.

Thanks again for your time and assistance. Stay warm!!

Thank you again for your prompt assistance with the citizenship review for (b)(6);(b)(7)(C). Unfortunately, I need a bit more information to complete the review.

Is it possible to obtain the following additional information from (b)(6);(b)(7)(C) mother?

1. A-number or naturalization date for (b)(6);(b)(7)(C)
2. Was Lilian ever a LPR? If so, what date did she become a LPR;
3. Were his parents married at the time of (b)(6);(b)(7)(C) birth or at any time;
4. If they were married, did they divorce? If so, who had legal custody of (b)(6);(b)(7)(C)
5. What is the immigration status of (b)(6);(b)(7)(C) father;

6. Approximate dates of (b)(6); residency in the U.S.;
7. Did (b)(6) ever petition for (b)(6); to become a LPR any time;
8. Were (b)(6);(b)(7)(C) parents married at the time of her birth? If not, who had legal custody;
9. What is (b)(6);(b)(7)(C) mother's immigration status in the U.S.

It is unlikely (b)(6) acquired citizenship from her father because she was born on (b)(6);(b)(7)(C) prior to her father's naturalization on March 24, 1971. However, she may have derived citizenship. (b)(6);(b)(7)(C) claim to citizenship is dependent upon the following factors: 1) the date of his mother's naturalization; 2) whether his parents were married at the time of his birth; and 3) whether he ever became a LPR. Any derivation claim requires that (b)(6);(b)(7)(C) become a LPR prior to reaching the age of 18, so it's highly unlikely he derived citizenship, but want to ensure we conduct a proper analysis.

Thanks again and I apologize for the lengthy inquiries.

I look forward to hearing from you at your earliest convenience

Good Evening ACC (b)(6);(b)(7)(C)

It was a pleasure meeting you today. I hope the rest of your day has gone smoothly.

Attached are the documents you requested related to the issue of whether Mr. (b)(6);(b)(7)(C) potentially acquired US citizenship at birth. The attachment includes the following in the following order:

- Copy of (b)(6);(b)(7)(C) birth certificate

- Translation of (b)(6);(b)(7)(C) birth certificate
 - Copy of photo-page of (b)(6);(b)(7)(C) mother's (b)(6);(b)(7)(C) passport
 - Copy of (b)(6);(b)(7)(C)'s birth certificate
 - Translation of (b)(6);(b)(7)(C) birth certificate
 - Certificate of Citizenship for (b)(6);(b)(7)(C) father (b)(6);(b)(7)(C) grandfather
 - Copy of Front and Back of (b)(6);(b)(7)(C) US citizen ID card
- I apologize that I do not have (b)(6);(b)(7)(C) certificate of naturalization; I thought I had it but apparently I do not.

I am investigating into whether (b)(6);(b)(7)(C) acquired citizenship at birth due to his grandfather's US citizenship and therefore his mother's US citizenship. Please let me know if DHS is able to determine (b)(6);(b)(7)(C) potential US citizenship, as well.

Finally, I appreciate in advance you emailing me the NTA and evidence packet, whenever you get a chance.

Sincerely,

I have reviewed this case with several senior attorneys here in the office and have determined that a claim to acquired citizenship is dependent upon the statutory residency requirement for both (b)(6);(b)(7)(C) mother and maternal grandfather. We located his mother/s administrative number, (b)(6);(b)(7)(C) She became a naturalized US citizen independently on Nov. 9, 2012 through her marriage to a U.S. citizen.

His maternal grandfather's a# is (b)(6);(b)(7)(C) and he acquired U.S. citizenship though a U.S. citizen parent. Therefore, in order for him to acquire citizenship, he must establish the following:

1. Maternal grandfather's residency in the U.S. for 10 years prior to his mother's birth on (b)(6);(b)(7)(C) 5 father the age of 14;

2. If his mother was born out of wedlock, he must also establish that her father legitimated her prior to the age of 21;
3. If his mother indeed acquired citizenship, she must then establish that his mother was residing in the U.S. for 5 years prior to his birth on (b)(6);(b)(7)(C) 2 after the age of 14.

Also, did his parents eventually divorce because his mother married a U.S. citizen. If so, did his step-father legally adopt him?

I'm including Senior attorney (b)(6);(b)(7)(C) for all future correspondence as today will be my last day in the NYC office.

Thank you and it was a pleasure meeting you during my time in the office

Good Afternoon,

Thanks for your email. I was in detention all morning with clients and am away from the office all afternoon at an event. I will unfortunately not be able to access your requested information until tomorrow morning.

However, I want to note that we are not only investigating whether (b)(6);(b)(7)(C) derived citizenship, but whether he acquired it at birth. That is, whether his mother was a USC at birth because her father was a USC at birth (note that the docs provided related to (b)(6);(b)(7)(C) grandfather show that he was a USC at birth, not that he naturalized) and therefore whether (b)(6);(b)(7)(C) is a USC from birth.

I will provide whatever else I have first thing in the morning.

Thanks again for your time and assistance. Stay warm!!

Thank you again for your prompt assistance with the citizenship review for (b)(6);(b)(7)(C). Unfortunately, I need a bit more information to complete the review.

Is it possible to obtain the following additional information from (b)(6);(b)(7)(C) mother?

1. A-number or naturalization date for (b)(6);(b)(7)(C);
2. Was (b)(6);(b)(7)(C) ever a LPR? If so, what date did she become a LPR;

3. Were his parents married at the time of (b)(6);(b)(7)(C) birth or at any time;
4. If they were married, did they divorce? If so, who had legal custody of (b)(6);
5. What is the immigration status of (b)(6);'s father;
6. Approximate dates of (b)(6);(b)(7)(C) residency in the U.S.;
7. Did (b)(6); ever petition for (b)(6); to become a LPR any time;
8. Were (b)(6);(b)(7)(C) parents married at the time of her birth? If not, who had legal custody;
9. What is (b)(6);(b)(7)(C) mother's immigration status in the U.S.

It is unlikely (b)(6); acquired citizenship from her father because she was born on (b)(6);(b)(7)(C), prior to her father's naturalization on March 24, 1971. However, she may have derived citizenship. (b)(6);(b)(7)(C) claim to citizenship is dependent upon the following factors: 1) the date of his mother's naturalization; 2) whether his parents were married at the time of his birth; and 3) whether he ever became a LPR. Any derivation claim requires that (b)(6); become a LPR prior to reaching the age of 18, so it's highly unlikely he derived citizenship, but want to ensure we conduct a proper analysis.

Hi,

Thank you for your speedy reply. I am also attempting to gather the documents from (b)(6);(b)(7)(C) mother to demonstrate her father's (i.e., (b)(6);(b)(7)(C) maternal grandfather) presence in the US prior to her birth. I will of course do my best to provide those to you and the Court as soon as possible.

I apologize for what appears to be my "beating of a dead horse," if you will... but do you have a position on whether you are able to scan/email me the NTA and evidence packet in the meantime? I reiterate my apology for this nagging request. If denied, I will simply stop asking. If granted, I will be very grateful!

Sincerely,

(b)(6);(b)(7)(C)

ps. If you identify any other documents you think you need in order to expedite the citizenship inquiry, please feel free to let me know. I am doing my very best to hunt everything down expeditiously.

Good Morning (b)(6);(b)(7)(C) and (b)(6);(b)(7)(

To clarify, (b)(6);(b)(7)(C) was born in 1989. As for his mother's first entry into the United States, it appears as if it was in 1993. However, that does not close the possibility of acquisition of citizenship if her previous attempts at entering the United States in order to meet the physical presence requirement were denied due to a US government official's erroneous interpretation of the law. See Matter of Navarrete, 12 I&N Dec. 138 (BIA 1967); see also Matter of Farley, 11 I&N Dec. 51 (BIA 1965); Matter of Yanez-Carrillo, 10 I&N Dec. 366 (BIA 1963). In other words, (b)(6);(b)(7)(C) mother may well have been "constructively present" in the United States for the 5 requisite years prior to (b)(6);(b)(7)(C) birth, thereby satisfying the requirements for (b)(6);(b)(7)(C) to be a USC at birth. My discussions with her indicate that she did indeed attempt to enter the US during her youth but was denied erroneously.

I recognize that it is my burden to demonstrate the above. I am doing my best to gather the necessary documents; I hope you can appreciate that it is difficult to do so.

In the meantime, I respectfully renew my request for the NTA and evidence submission. I fear waiting to get a time/date from Varick to review the ROP will cause unnecessarily delay.

Thank you in advance.
Sincerely,

I was able to learn from (b)(6);(b)(7)(C) mother that her first admission to the United States was in 1993. I hope that is helpful for your review of his potential acquisition of citizenship claim.

Additionally, are you able to provide (scan/email is fine) a copy of the NTA and DHS' evidence packet? I filed a ROP request today but those usually take several days (sometimes weeks) to make happen. It would be extremely helpful in my preparation for 1/31 to have the requested documents a little earlier.

Thanks for considering. I hope you had a nice weekend.

Hi,

Thank you for your speedy reply. I am also attempting to gather the documents from Mr. (b)(6);(b)(7)(C) mother to demonstrate her father's (i.e., (b)(6);(b)(7)(C) maternal grandfather) presence in the US prior to her birth. I will of course do my best to provide those to you and the Court as soon as possible.

I apologize for what appears to be my "beating of a dead horse," if you will... but do you have a position on whether you are able to scan/email me the NTA and evidence packet in the meantime? I reiterate my apology for this nagging request. If denied, I will simply stop asking. If granted, I will be very grateful!

Sincerely,

(b)(6);(b)(7)(C)

ps. If you identify any other documents you think you need in order to expedite the citizenship inquiry, please feel free to let me know. I am doing my very best to hunt everything down expeditiously.

Good Morning (b)(6);(b)(7)(C) and (b)(6);(b)(7)(C)

To clarify, (b)(6);(b)(7)(C) was born in 1989. As for his mother's first entry into the United States, it appears as if it was in 1993. However, that does not close the possibility of acquisition of citizenship if her previous attempts at entering the United States in order to meet the physical presence requirement were denied due to a US government official's erroneous interpretation of the law. See Matter of Navarrete, 12 I&N Dec. 138 (BIA 1967); see also Matter of Farley, 11 I&N Dec. 51 (BIA 1965); Matter of Yanez-Carrillo, 10 I&N Dec. 366 (BIA 1963). In other words, (b)(6);(b)(7)(C) mother may well have been "constructively present" in the United States for the 5 requisite years prior to (b)(6);(b)(7)(C)'s birth, thereby satisfying the requirements for (b)(6);(b)(7)(C) to be a USC at birth. My discussions with her indicate that she did indeed attempt to enter the US during her youth but was denied erroneously.

I recognize that it is my burden to demonstrate the above. I am doing my best to gather the necessary documents; I hope you can appreciate that it is difficult to do so.

In the meantime, I respectfully renew my request for the NTA and evidence submission. I fear waiting to get a time/date from Varick to review the ROP will cause unnecessarily delay.

Thank you in advance.
Sincerely,

Good Evening (b)(6);(b)(7)(C)

I was able to learn from (b)(6);(b)(7)(C) mother that her first admission to the United States was in 1993. I hope that is helpful for your review of his potential acquisition of citizenship claim.

Additionally, are you able to provide (scan/email is fine) a copy of the NTA and DHS' evidence packet? I filed a ROP request today but those usually take several days (sometimes weeks) to make happen. It would be extremely helpful in my preparation for 1/31 to have the requested documents a little earlier.

Thanks for considering. I hope you had a nice weekend.

No worries, I appreciate you responding so promptly. I have reviewed this case with several senior attorneys here in the office and have determined that a claim to acquired citizenship is dependent upon the statutory residency requirement for both (b)(6);(b)(7)(C) mother and maternal grandfather. We located his mother/s administrative number, (b)(6);(b)(7)(C) She became a naturalized US citizen independently on Nov. 9, 2012 through her marriage to a U.S. citizen.

His maternal grandfather's a# is (b)(6);(b)(7)(C) and he acquired U.S. citizenship through a U.S. citizen parent. Therefore, in order for him to acquire citizenship, he must establish the following:

1. Maternal grandfather's residency in the U.S. for 10 years prior to his mother's birth on (b)(6);(b)(7)(C) 5 father the age of 14;
2. If his mother was born out of wedlock, he must also establish that her father legitimated her prior to the age of 21;
3. If his mother indeed acquired citizenship, she must then establish that his mother was residing in the U.S. for 5 years prior to his birth on (b)(6);(b)(7)(C) 2 after the age of 14.

Also, did his parents eventually divorce because his mother married a U.S. citizen. If so, did his step-father legally adopt him?

I'm including Senior attorney (b)(6):(b)(7)(C) for all future correspondence as today will be my last day in the NYC office.

Thank you and it was a pleasure meeting you during my time in the office

Good Afternoon,

Thanks for your email. I was in detention all morning with clients and am away from the office all afternoon at an event. I will unfortunately not be able to access your requested information until tomorrow morning.

However, I want to note that we are not only investigating whether (b)(6);(f) derived citizenship, but whether he acquired it at birth. That is, whether his mother was a USC at birth because her father was a USC at birth (note that the docs provided related to (b)(6);(b) grandfather show that he was a USC at birth, not that he naturalized) and therefore whether (b)(6);(f) is a USC from birth.

I will provide whatever else I have first thing in the morning.

Thanks again for your time and assistance. Stay warm!!

Thank you again for your prompt assistance with the citizenship review for (b)(6);(b)(7)(C). Unfortunately, I need a bit more information to complete the review.

Is it possible to obtain the following additional information from (b)(6);(b) mother?

1. A-number or naturalization date for (b)(6);(b)(7)
2. Was (b)(6) ever a LPR? If so, what date did she become a LPR;
3. Were his parents married at the time of (b)(6);(f) birth or at any time;
4. If they were married, did they divorce? If so, who had legal custody of (b)(6);(f)
5. What is the immigration status of (b)(6);(f) father;
6. Approximate dates of (b)(6);(f) residency in the U.S.;
7. Did (b)(6) ever petition for (b)(6) to become a LPR any time;
8. Were (b)(6);(f) parents married at the time of her birth? If not, who had legal custody;
9. What is (b)(6);(f) mother's immigration status in the U.S.

It is unlikely (b)(6) acquired citizenship from her father because she was born on (b)(6);(b)(7)(C) prior to her father's naturalization on March 24, 1971. However, she may have derived citizenship. (b)(6)'s claim to citizenship is dependent upon the following factors: 1) the date of his mother's naturalization; 2) whether his parents were married at the time of his birth; and 3) whether he ever became a LPR. Any derivation claim requires that (b)(6) become a LPR prior to reaching the age of 18, so it's highly unlikely he derived citizenship, but want to ensure we conduct a proper analysis.

Thanks again and I apologize for the lengthy inquiries.

I look forward to hearing from you at your earliest convenience

Good Evening ACC (b)(6);(b)(7)(C)

It was a pleasure meeting you today. I hope the rest of your day has gone smoothly.

Attached are the documents you requested related to the issue of whether (b)(6);(b)(7)(C) potentially acquired US citizenship at birth. The attachment includes the following in the following order:

- Copy of (b)(6);(b)(7)(C) birth certificate
- Translation of (b)(6);(b)(7)(C) birth certificate
- Copy of photo-page of (b)(6);(b)(7)(C) mother's (b)(6);(b)(7)(C) passport
- Copy of (b)(6);(b)(7)(C) birth certificate
- Translation of (b)(6);(b)(7)(C) birth certificate
- Certificate of Citizenship for (b)(6);(b)(7)(C) (b)(6);(b)(7)(C) father / (b)(6);(b)(7)(C) grandfather
- Copy of Front and Back of (b)(6);(b)(7)(C) US citizen ID card

I apologize that I do not have (b)(6);(b)(7)(C) certificate of naturalization; I thought I had it but apparently I do not.

I am investigating into whether (b)(6);(b)(7)(C) acquired citizenship at birth due to his grandfather's US citizenship and therefore his mother's US citizenship. Please let me know if DHS is able to determine (b)(6);(b)(7)(C) potential US citizenship, as well.

Finally, I appreciate in advance you emailing me the NTA and evidence packet, whenever you get a chance.

Sincerely,

Subject: Re: Citizenship review for Axxx-xxx (b)(6)

Good Evening (b)(6);(b)(7)(C)

I was able to learn from (b)(6);(b)(7)(C) mother that her first admission to the United States was in 1993. I hope that is helpful for your review of his potential acquisition of citizenship claim.

Additionally, are you able to provide (scan/email is fine) a copy of the NTA and DHS' evidence packet? I filed a ROP request today but those usually take several days (sometimes weeks) to make happen. It would be extremely helpful in my preparation for 1/31 to have the requested documents a little earlier.

Thanks for considering. I hope you had a nice weekend.
Sincerely,

(b)(6);(b)(7)(C)

Could you at least ask the respondent's mother when was the first time she entered the US, that would speed the process along,

Thanks

But at that point it was 4:30ish was also preparing for court today. I do feel horrible about it in light of the complexity of the case.

I appreciate your help but please know it wasn't intentional. Also, fully aware of the 24 hr rule and there is no denying that it was not going to be completed within that time frame.

UPDATE – The file has been handed to SDDO. The process to release respondent has been started. The bus has already left for the day. He is calling the father to see if he can pick up the respondent. If he cannot tonight, respondent will be placed on a bus in the morning.

I am out for today but will be in first thing in the morning for anything else that may need done.

Thank you for your help with this matter.

I spoke with the respondent's attorney last week. She does not have any further information other than to confirm the correct spelling of the names of the purported parents. She and the deportation officer told me the respondent does not have any further information. I asked the attorney to file a Sopo motion so the respondent could be questioned in open court, but she has not filed the motion.

I spoke with Mr. (b)(6);(C) at the NY Bureau of Vital Statistics. He asked for the dates of birth for the parents, but neither the respondent nor his attorney have that information. I will have to relay that to Mr. (b)(6);(C) and see what he can do. There is no biographical information for the parents in the habeas petition.

All,

Has the respondent's attorney provided any further information about the mother's correct name and date and place of birth? Her naturalization? Or her physical presence? Is any of that information in the habeas petition? Have we followed up with vital statistics? Thanks.

Hi (b)(6); and (b)(6);(b)! This is just an FYI. I emailed the NYC vital statistics office to request the birth certificate of the purported mother. Waiting for a response. The respondent's attorney is going to file a motion for a Sopo bond hearing. I'll confirm the spelling of the parent's names and their DOB's at that hearing. I send up an updated alert once I get an answer from the vital statistics office and confirm the other info. Thanks.

Hello Ms. (b)(6);(b)(7)(C)

I just wanted to update you on what happened at today's contested charges hearing. The IJ did not make a decision on alienage. The respondent just filed a motion to reopen the N-600 on February 23, 2017. The IJ opted for giving the respondent a continuance so that the motion to reopen the N-600 can be adjudicated by CIS.

The IJ told the respondent's counsel that there was really nothing he could do for him now until CIS made a determination on the motion to reopen. The case was reset for a master hearing on April 19, 2017 for a status update on the motion to reopen.

Thank you,

Hi (b)(6);

I have the scanned A file of the mother but I do not have the daughter's file. I gave it back on 02/24/2017 to (b)(6);(b)(7)(C) because the respond had a hearing on 02/28/2017.

Please let me know if you know where the A file is located and I will be able to adjudicate it.

Please let me know if you received the mother's file. It was in York. If there is a hold-up, please give me the A-# and ICE Senior Attorney (b)(6);(b)(7)(C) (who I have included in this message) will contact Allenwood/York.

Thanks.

Hey ladies,

Could I trouble you to check your archives for the above USC claim? (b)(6);(b)(7)(C);(b)(5)

I can't find our USC claim archives for FY2017 on the S:/ drive, which is a separate problem. The USC claims calendar shows (b)(6);(b)(7) had duty on 9/15, (b)(6);(b)(7) 9/14, and (b)(6);(b)(7) 9/16.

Subject: (b)(6);(b)(7)(C) Update on USC Claim

Dear Ms. (b)(6);(b)(7)(C)

I'm sending you an updated PLANet link for the above alien as I believe you are the HQ POC on this USC claim from OCC-NYC.

(b)(6);(b)(7)(C)

As a brief summary, after the HQ alert was elevated in November 2016, with HQ ILPD and HQ ERO concurring with OCC-NYC's analysis that the alien had not made a probative claim to US citizenship, two additional hearings (conferences) were held (1/19/2017 and 3/10/2017). On 3/10/2017, the alien's attorney sought another adjournment to obtain additional documents and apply for a US passport.

DHS opposed any further adjournments, noting that the alien has no other forms of relief pending and has benefited from multiple adjournments over the past year in order to make a probative claim to USC, but has failed to do so.

IJ agreed and found that the alien had not yet made a probative claim to USC, opposed any further adjournments to do so, and ordered the alien removed to Australia in the alternative. The alien reserved appeal, which is due by 4/10/2017.

If you have any questions or concerns, please do not hesitate to reach out to me or my Deputy Chief Counsel, (b)(6);(b)(7)(C), copied on this e-mail.

Thank you and kind regards,

(b)(6);(b)(7)(C)
