	2. SECTION: Continuation Sheet; PAGE: 2 of 126 This section of the RFP states that the Bed Day Rate for Minimum Quantity The Governments minimum quantity to be ordered via task order is 300 beds per day for the base year and each option year. Question: Does this represent a minimum occupancy guarantee of 300 beds? If so, shall contractors provide an incremental price for the remaining 225 beds? If this does not represent a minimum occupancy guarantee may contractors submit a minimum guarantee alternative under this contract? A higher minimum guarantee will result in a lower actual and blended per diem, which provides the best value to ICE. Answer: Pricing for CLIN 0001A is the minimum guarantee of 300 beds. CLIN 0001B is for the additional 225 beds. The average daily population is 417. 3. SECTION: B; PAGE: 2-11 out of 126 Section B does not include a CLIN for firearms training Question: Section B does not include a CLIN for firearms training. Firearm training is included in the current agreement. Does ICE intend for firearms training to be a part of this agreement? Answer: Yes firearm training is to be included in the bed day rate. Please see section H-18 specifically paragraphs j and k 4. SECTION: Continuation Sheet; PAGE: 3 of 126 Regarding Optional Line Item for Medical Services: CLINS 0005, 1005, 2005, 3005, and 4005 Question: What does the quantity 52,000 relate to? Is this number referring to the number of encounters or number of visits per detainee per day? If encounter, please clarify what constitutes an encounter? Answer: The 52,000 is the quantity of encounters for the base or option period (2 years). An encounter is a visit with medical health, mental health or dental personnel. Historical data for Continued ...

Factor 1.2 – Approach to Staffing

The Offeror shall describe their approach to fully staffing the proposed facility, including its management, supervisory, security, and contingency plans. The Offeror shall include a contingency plan should the staffing levels fall below 95 percent. The Offeror shall define how they will acquire and maintain a reserve guard force for temporary or emergency staffing sufficient to meet the requirements of the RFP.

Factor 1.3 – Transition Plan

The offeror shall describe a seamless transition between the Offeror and the predecessor Contractor to ensure minimal disruption to vital Contractor services and Government activities. The Offeror shall provide a contract transition plan which shall address the Offeror’s proposed timeframes to ensure a contract start date of September 01, 2011. The transition plan shall address the following areas: recruitment, training of new and incumbent employees, licenses and permits, insurance and priority of staffing the facility.

Factor 1.4 – Key Personnel

A minimum of one resume for each key personnel labor category identified in Section H shall be provided and submitted with the Offeror’s proposal. However, all labor categories proposed by the contractor must meet the required education, experience, and security clearances stated.

The Contractor’s organization chart shall be submitted. The organizational chart shall show all positions that will be assigned to each area, accompanied by position description and responsibilities. Lines of supervision per shift shall be clearly defined.

Factor 1.5 - Management Plan

The Offeror shall provide a management plan that addresses, at a minimum, the following areas:

- understanding of the ERO Mission Statement and ERO responsibilities;
- understanding of the relevance of the ERO Mission Statement and ERO responsibilities to successful contract performance;
- understanding of how management differs from supervision in the context of the ERO Mission Statement and ERO responsibilities;
- an explanation of how the Offeror specifically plans to help ERO achieve the ERO Mission Statement and ERO responsibilities;
- performance measures and incentives or disincentives that demonstrate an understanding of the ERO Mission Statement and ERO responsibilities; and
- commitment of the Offeror to the success of achieving the ERO Mission Statement and ERO responsibilities as demonstrated by the extent to which the Offeror will realistically put its profits at risk through the meaningful incentives and disincentives proposed.

Factor 1.6 - Subcontracting Plan

The offeror shall submit a subcontracting plan in compliance with FAR 19.704.
