Ms. Stevens:

Attached is the email with all attachments that we submitted to the Court 12/1/21, as the Court directed on 11/29/21. Also attached is an email Mr. Guberman submitted with an alternative draft order, as well as an earlier email he sent to the Court advising that he would be submitting an alternative.

There was no Court response to the 12/1/21 email that we recall. But we believe you now have everything that was submitted by the other parties 12/1/21.

Your assertion that our 12/1/21 communication with the Court was “ex parte” is incorrect. At the Court’s direction, you were not to be included in the 11/29/21 hearing, because the issue was confidentiality of information you sought.

You did not include Mr. Auton or me in your message below, which we will assume was inadvertent. Please be sure to include both of us in all future communications with the Court, NextLevel, and DLA Piper about this matter.

Cheers.

Mr. Freilich,

Can you please share with me the attachments to the Dec. 1, 2021 email sent to the Judge Meyerson's chambers and also the response to that email, if any? At present these are all ex parte communications: the court and opposing party have documents on which you are asking Judge Meyerson to rely and you have not shared these with the Intervenor.
