Dr. Stevens:

The exhibits you filed as part of the Giese Declaration are indeed the Exhibits A and B referenced in the Declaration.

 EXTERNAL MESSAGE

Mr. Schwab,

]I just confirmed with the Chancery Division that the exhibits are indeed confidential. I did not file the court's order for this because the order is for Exhibits A and B to the Giese Declaration and the documents here do not have that caption.

I would like to know if you or anyone else copied here filed "Exhibits A and B" to the Giese Declaration.

The attached notice does not reflect confidentiality. Did you file your motion with a copy of the Court' sealing order so that the Clerk is aware?

Thanks.

Mr. Schwab,
I copied the court so it would have my motions and exhibits in a time frame when I was unable to access Odyssey, as my email stated.
You now copying the court on your concerns about my exhibits.
As the motion states, I filed these as "confidential." What is your objection to this?

Dr. Stevens:

It is not clear to us why you continue to copy the Court on filings like this.

For the record, we object to your filing of the very Giese Declaration exhibits that you are aware the Court ordered should remain sealed. Kindly withdraw them immediately and present them to the Court lawfully.

Thank you.

The Giese photographed file exhibit is too large to be sent by email. I'm working on compressing it now. Meanwhile, please find attached Exhibit 4 to the Motion to Reconsider.
