>> Subject: judge cassidy
>> Dear Ms. Keller,
>> I am writing at the suggestion of an AILA member to file a misconduct >> complaint against IJ William Cassidy for unlawfully instigating guards >> working for the Federal Protective Services to threaten and use force >> against me. I believe that by enlisting guards to "get her out of the >> building" Mr. Cassidy engaged in criminal conspiracy to commit > assault.
>> He also deprived me of my First Amendment right to attend the >> immigration
>> hearing and he appears to have violated the Immigration Practice > Manual
>> rule stating that asylum hearings may be closed only at the request of >> the >> respondent.
>> This occurred on Monday, April 19, 2010 at the immigration courts in >> Atlanta, Georgia.
>> The details are described in my blog stateswithoutnations.blogspot.com
>> and >> I would request that you rely on this information for the background

>> You may also contact Lauren Alder Reid in EOIR; she can confirm that > I >> gave her this narrative within about two hours of its occurrence. (I >> also >> want you to note the comments by other attorneys responding to this >> post.)
>> I hope it is okay if I call to discuss this in more detail.
> Meanwhile,
>> please feel free to call me at 805-637-4696.
