FOR THE NORTHERN DISTRICT OF GEORGIA
ATLANTA DIVISION

JACQUELINE STEVENS,

Plaintiff,

v.

ERIC H. HOLDER, JR., Attorney
General of the United States, et al.,

Defendants.

CIVIL ACTION NO.
1:12-CV-1352-ODE

FEDERAL DEFENDANTS' RENEWED MOTION FOR SUMMARY JUDGMENT

COME NOW Federal Defendants, by and through the undersigned counsel, and in response to Plaintiff's First Amended Complaint, respectfully move this Court to grant summary judgment for Federal Defendants. Summary judgment for Federal Defendants pursuant to Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 56 is appropriate because the actions Plaintiff challenges were lawful given applicable regulations and the record established through exhibits to the accompanying Federal Defendants' Memorandum of Law Supporting Their Renewed Motion for <sup>1</sup> The accompanying Memorandum exceeds the twenty-five (25) page limit set out in LR 7.1 by six (6) pages. Accordingly, Federal Defendants have filed concurrently with the instant motion a Motion for Extension of Page Limit under LR 7.1 in light of the multiple counts and multiple defendants addressed in the summary judgment motion and in an effort to address all the issues in one single document. If the Court deems it appropriate, Federal Defendants do not oppose allowing Plaintiff an additional six (6) pages in her response brief.

CERTIFICATE OF COMPLIANCE

I certify that the documents to which this certificate is attached have been prepared with one of the font and point selections approved by the Court in Local Rule 5.1C for documents prepared by computer.
