ORDER ON PROPOSED SCHEDULING AND DISCOVERY ORDER (ECF NO. 61)

Kane, J.

Upon review of the parties' Proposed Scheduling and Discovery Order (ECF No. 61), it is clear that an additional scheduling conference is warranted. The parties are directed to call in jointly at (303) 844-6118 on or before April 13, 2017, to set a date and time for the conference. The Proposed Order indicates that the parties' dispute the effect of the relevant Touhy regulations, 6 C.F.R. 5.41, et seq., on discovery proceedings in this case. To resolve this preliminary issue, the parties shall file any related motion on or before April 26, 2017, with responses due 14 days later and any replies 7 days after that. The case will proceed in due course pending further order from the Tenth Circuit. See Fed. R. Civ. P. 23(f).

DATED this 5th day of April, 2017.

SENIOR U.S. DISTRICT JUDGE
