Dr. Stevens:

We are not certain how to answer your email below. Perhaps this will help:

- You will recall the Court's Nov. 29, 2021 Order which declared that Exs. A and B to the Giese Declaration would remain under seal; there were no other exhibits to the Giese Declaration.
- In 2020, everything was presented to the Court or filed under seal pursuant to court order.
- It is our understanding that the court docket reflects which filings were made and when, but the identities of "filing" attorneys and filing "party" are not always accurately or consistently reflected.

Best wishes.

Subject: Giese exhibits

 EXTERNAL MESSAGE

Dear Counsel,

I only recently was able to obtain the Joint Motion filed on June 29, 2020. On reviewing the filings it became clear that two exhibits referenced were not available via the public terminal. One is the Giese exhibits; a second is the "certain form of approval letter, to be executed by the Director and addressed to Centene..." (p. 2, Jt. Motion). However, only one exhibit remains as listed as "restricted."

To clear up ongoing confusion about the docket, I would appreciate it if you would confirm that parties filed both of these exhibits.

Thank you,

Jacqueline Stevens
Professor
